Toronto, Ont. (July 17, 2021) - Award-winning singer-songwriter, Dani Kristina releases the music video for her powerful new single, "One Night Stand," which she co-wrote with guitarist and friend Andrew Sporcic. It was produced by Trevor James Anderson and recorded at Noble Street Studios in Toronto. "One Night Stand" is a personal and heartfelt ballad, which features layers of strings, synths, drums, and passionate vocals. Dani masterfully plays with the dynamics to build and release tension throughout the track.

"It's about a risky romantic experience that was cut short by borders closing, which reflects on how things may have progressed if things were different," explained Dani. "It examines many 'what ifs' but as much as the song remains hopeful, it's actually telling a sad story of someone who really falls for another person, but never gets to explore it fully." The music video is self-directed and edited by Dani Kristina, and it takes place in an elegant room that's illuminated by sunlight. Dani can be seen pacing the room, laying on the bed, and completely embodying who she is in the song.

part of a larger story that has yet to be completed. Keep your ears to the ground and brace yourself for what comes next.
